Immersion in 2018

We praise God that during this year 2018 there have been 2555 souls who have accepted Jesus as Savior and Lord and obeyed Him in Christian baptism. It is a great thrill to report to you that these native evangelists have written to us that during January—July. They along with our American Evangelists have baptized 2555 souls. Thank the Lord!!!

Lacey's Adventure in Haiti

Lacey on her first trip to Haiti

Like any trip there is always a new adventure that Haiti gives you and it doesn't matter how many times you have gone because for me, I have gone around 20 times and I am still experiencing new things. First: I am here in Haiti by myself. Yes you read that correctly, my parents thought it was time for me to spread my wings and take more responsibility by going by myself getting work done. It's been tough in the means of trying to get people to listen to me because I am so young. They do not see me as an adult, but I am pretty head strong and stubborn to get them to see my point of view. I also referred to 1 Timothy 4:12 in my head to show them love and faith in my words. I know everything will work out by the end of the trip. And everything did eventually workout I. Prosper told me on the last day that even though I look little, I am very wise.

How do I even talk about July 7th. Jojo and I set off for the Citadel around 5:30am. Oh! This was by motorcycle too so another new experience! By 7:00am, I experienced my first demonstration and that wasn't going to be the last unfortunately. We got through the truck blocking the road only to come up on another 20 minutes later, except this one they were burning tires and cars in the street. Then a man forcefully stopped us to take some of JoJo's gas. Once we got past that, it was smooth sailing (besides the bumpy roads of course) to the Citadel.

Lacey's Adventure in Haiti

At that point it was amazing because we saw Ronel and the boys from Mark's House! It was a very steep hill to climb (took 30 minutes to walk it!) and we were finally at the castle. We had a guide with us to tell us about the history of the Citadel and of King Christophe that we wouldn't be able to read in any books. One fact: Christophe built a bakery there because when he was shipped to Haiti, his first job was at a bakery. We enjoyed walking around and seeing everything.

When we finished we had delicious food that Ronel's wife, Nadine, made for us and we went back down the hill. We said our goodbyes and off we went to go back to Gonaives. Little did we know that we would be staying in Pignon for the night because of all of the roadblocks. Let me tell you, it was not an easy ride to Pignon. In total, we hit 4 demonstrations. The first one, men were throwing glass and waving their machetes at us.

The second they were throwing rocks and the third they were burning tires in the road so we couldn't pass. At the fourth roadblock we were stopped by a group of men, they took JoJo's keys and were forcefully trying to get JoJo to give them money since he had a blanc (white) person with him.

He refused and stood his ground by saying he doesn't have money either and he is Haitian so he doesn't need to give his money to them. Finally we made it to Pignon. JoJo told me that he was thankful I was there because I saved us and showed no fear to the men. I realized I showed no fear because I knew and had faith that God would protect us. He had a huge hand on us that day.

News From Around The World

CUBA

God bless you, recently I had the pleasure of ministering a Christian wedding. 4 couples from our church were married in front of the Eyes of God and one of them renewed their Marriage Vows before God after almost 70 years of marriage, now in their nineties. It was a wonderful moment with the presence of the Lord where fulfilling the Christian union as the Bible teaches us we rejoice in joy and pleasure brothers, sisters, friends and family. It was built in a public place called "La Cotorra Recreation Park" located in Guanabacoa Havana, very close to where our church is located. In this place we have already done some of our evangelistic and cult activities when some brothers have visited us. outside Cuba and our own activities. Here I am sending you some attached photos of these beautiful and great moments. This wedding is a testimony of Christian unity and obedience to the world and the people who are there and do not concentrate on Christ. Thank God because without Him nothing is possible and with Him everything is possible.

Antonio Martín Quintana Pastor and Preacher of the Christian Church in Guanabacoa and the Christian Missions Havana.

LIBERIA

We have Began to plaster the walls of the boys dorm. The doors are all in hand and we are putting them up. We are praying complete it so that they can move inside it. We painted the school building sometime ago. I am sending you some of the pictures for you to see. We are praying to complete the school fence.

All of our Nineth graders passed the National Exam but not all the 12th graders passed because they took a different test that is new to Liberia. It is WASCE which is from Ghana. We pray to have a Science Laboratory and a Computer Lab. We have the room but there are no equipment in the room. We have put up the shelves for the books waiting to put some books there for research. Thank you again and always for your love and care for our kids and us. God bless you all. Kindest regards, Bro. Steven S. Enoch

Prayers And Praises

1. Many praises to God for giving Lacey the insight to not show fear during the demonstrations which kept her safe from harm.
2. Pray for Aaron Whisnant as he has been suffering with malaria.
3. Praise the Lord for Francius Joseph and his desire to be a great servant of God and leading his congregation to be servants as well.
4. Pray for Ronel and Nadine Joseph. They are going to have a baby boy. Nadine has been experiencing complications.
5. Praise God for faithful prayer partners and financial supports.
6. Pray for God to meet all the needs of White Fields.
7. Pray for Vinod and Sharmila Rachwani as they minister on the island of Curacao
8. Pray for Georgi and Elena Yordanov as they minister in Bulgaria. Also for Georgi in finding a new job.
9. Pray for the India Preachers as they fight persecution daily.
10. Pray for Suman Singh as he cares for orphanages with very little support.
11. Pray for Cherry and Rey as they minister on the two islands in the Philippines.
12. Pray for Oscar and Joyce as they minister in Antigua.
13. Praise God that EK and Joyce celebrated their 46th wedding anniversary.
14. Pray for Manuel Bermudez in Cuba. He is very sick and suffering with brain cancer.

Lacey's Adventure in Haiti

They were demonstrating because they were angry about the gas prices skyrocketing. They said they needed to use violence by destroying objects, burning cars, and even killing people to show the government that they are not in agreement with this. My question was why use violence? Why not be peaceful and try to talk to them? Well I found out that doesn't work in Haiti. The government doesn't listen to them when they try to be peaceful instead they listen to them when the people are violent. The people were violent and they got the answer they wanted because the government decided not to raise prices, but now the people want the government out. Well they got that wish too because the Prime Minister resigned. I ask you to say a prayer for Haiti right now.

Lacey's Adventure in Haiti

The kids of course are doing great. They are at that stage of being ornery so I definitely had to have some patience and guidance. We have 26 kids from the ages of 2-18! There are 20 boys and 6 girls. Something that Prospere and Clotide asked me for help on was fixing the dining area because there are some places where the wood has broken and needs to be repaired. They asked for the buildings to be repainted and to build toys for the children to play on like a playground. If any of you are interested in these projects and want to help work at the orphanage, we are planning on going back to Haiti at the end of December.

Two more first time experiences were learning how to drive a manual moto and going to Mapou where the Jesus Loves Me Home use to be. It is safe to be able to go out there now. It was definitely different to be able to go out there and experience where the orphanage use to be. It is amazing how large the land is and where the kids use to play and run around, including my mom. It was sad to see how the buildings looked because they were so torn down from no upkeep.

Lacey's Adventure in Haiti

As I'm riding back on a bus to PAP, I am reminiscing on everything that has happened in these two weeks. First, it doesn't even feel like I have been here for two weeks, but it does at the same time. Two weeks can be very long with the kids at JLMH because when you are the only one and 24 of them want to play with you, it can get hectic! There were times where I had to breathe and remember how much I love them. While I was here, I got to take them to the stadium to play futbol with another orphanage. They loved every second of it. Next was beach day and all of the kids loved it of course. We played in the water with all the kids grabbing onto my back wanting me to swim them out to the where they couldn't touch. I had brought a frisbee so we played with that for a while. Clotide made food for all of the kids and after everyone was finally tired we headed back to the orphanage on a bus.

People have asked me, "How was your trip?" I'm honest with them. It had many ups and downs, but overall it was a great trip. I learned more about myself and how much I can handle. I learned that I need to stick my ground to get people to listen to me and I can (almost) handle 26 kids leaching onto me!
