Zane Reports From Cuba

In 1996 Reggie and Esther Thomas, accompanied by Bob and Mary Marsh, and John Bliffen made the first historic trip on the behalf of the undenominational Christian Church to start the work of undenominational Christianity in Cuba.

As history has recorded, the notorious Dictator Fidel Castro forcibly took over Cuba in 1959 and promptly brought Cuba under Communism and Atheism. All preachers were either murdered or sent out of the country. Most church buildings were destroyed, and people suffered under the iron-fist of the brutal dictator Fidel Castro. During these terrible years the people of Cuba have been deprived of most physical comforts because the United States placed an embargo against Cuba and all our allies all over the world would not trade with Cuba. For a few years Russia traded with Cuba and so does China. During these years of suffering church services were forbidden. No religious messages were permitted on the radio or TV. Door to door evangelism and street evangelism were strictly prohibited.

As time went on small, secret, house churches sprang up here and there. Then in 1996 President Bill Clinton amended the US law prohibiting Americans from visiting Cuba and declared that Preachers of the Gospel could go to Cuba. Reggie Thomas applied to the US government and secured a license and that is why he and Esther, the Marshes, and John Bliffen were able to go for the first time in 1996. During this first visit the team was able to start one small "house church" secretly in Havana. Since that time White Fields has organized and carried out over a hundred trips to Cuba resulting in 45 "secret house churches" of the Christian Church.

Zane Reports From Cuba

The 45 "house churches" that have been established for the Christian Church in Cuba have very small numbers meeting each Lord's Day to observe the Lord's supper, sing, pray, and hear a Gospel message. Most of them have 6 to 8 members because all the houses are very small. You can imagine then what joy has been in our hearts since Cuba and the United States have decided to have formal relations, trade, and normal visitation privileges. We have prayed that this would open the door to having church buildings so that more people can worship, and more souls can be won to Christ.

John Bliffen was scheduled to go to Cuba right when the pandemic hit, so he had to cancel his trip. This was our first trip back since the pandemic and it was wonderful to be back in the beautiful country of Cuba. Our first trip back when there was not a Castro in power since Raul Castro stepped down in April 2021. There were many things that had changed though, when Lacey and I were last in Cuba there were Americans everywhere doing all the tourist things to do. This trip reminded me of the pre-Obama era with no Americans anywhere.

I did notice that food is scarce, there seemed to be plenty of pork and lobster but most places did not have beef, chicken, or fish. The fish kind of threw me since we are right on the ocean. Now there is a place to order online in the states and pay for the food and the Cuban people can pick it up. This place seems to have plenty of food and many families in the states use this. We used this service during the pandemic to get food to the preachers and their families.

Medicine is another scarce source in Cuba and because of this you can bring in medicine through Cuban customs at no charge. We were able to bring in many different types of medicine, diabetic supplies, and catheters that was divided up amongst the churches. We will continue this for as long as Cuba will allow it.

Tornado Rips Through Mapou

Jean Robinson is the preacher of the Mapou Christian Church and Principal of the Mapou School (housed in the former medical clinic).

Last month a terrible storm came through the area. A tornado was created. The tornado ripped the roof off the school building. We are getting an estimate on the price of the new roof. Please pray for God to provide the funds for this need.

Happy Birthday Carlens

One year ago, this month I woke to 20-30 missed calls and even more messages from Junior Delphin in Haiti. As you may remember Junior's neighbor's sister found a just born baby left in weeds on the side of the road. The neighbor knew Junior grew up in an orphanage and thought he'd know what to do next. Junior, 28, single, and a full-time student, shocked us by saying he wanted to adopt the baby if we could help him. I put out a plea and people said they'd help.

In June, that just born baby who was thrown away, turned 1!! Happy birthday Carlens Junior Delphin! It has been so fun to watch him grow throughout this first year.

He is a happy baby, he loves his daddy, and his daddy adores him! Thank you to everyone who helped us throughout this first year.

Rick & Della Deighton

Ukrainian Refugee Center in Nampa!

Saturday, May 28 was the grand opening for the Ukrainian Refugee Center in Nampa, Idaho. The building at 16th Avenue North and 3rd Street was first a church building, then several years ago became the Light-house for serving homeless people and ministering as a rehab ministry to enable people to come Home to Jesus and recover from addictions (as a branch of Boise Rescue Mission). At the grand opening, Bill Roscoe, director of Boise Rescue Mission, told us that about a year ago they were serving meals to as many as 100 men each evening, but the need had shrunk down to only two or three per evening – so they decided to close the building. Then he got a call from a team of individuals who asked him if he would consider turning that building into a Ukrainian Refugee Center. He said that he did not understand what God was planning for that building/ministry until he got that call! Praise God, there was a great response and turnout of interested people for the Grand Opening! Iryna Yagilnicky has been helping with the preparations for the grand opening, and they invited her to come back to help them. The actual title is “Ukrainian Welcome Center” displayed in the yellow and blue flag colors.

I had met Bill Roscoe several years before because we have donated lighting and some of our books for the mission. After his speech, I introduced him to Della and told him that I have lost count on how many mission trips I’ve made to Ukraine, but now I won’t be making more trips because Della has multiple health issues and I need to fulfill my first commitment which I made in our wedding vows. His comment: “Now God is bringing Ukraine to you!” Please pray with us for His wisdom for us and for Stephen and Iryna about what He would have us to do in this situation. (How He wants us to serve.)

Insights from Shannon Haynie

As most of you know, I was a missionary with Pioneer Bible Translators in Ukraine for nearly 12 years. The crisis happening right now in that country is heartbreaking. I have been in contact with several friends, and no matter who they are or where they are in Ukraine, they are all saying the same thing. They are scared. Some of my friends have been able to leave the country by car into neighboring countries. Others do not want to leave or can’t leave, so they are in bomb shelters under the ground. I have seen pictures of the underground subway system packed full of families in their sleeping bags, trying to get some rest. Several are fleeing to Western Ukraine where several places, like a YWAM base, are opening their doors to house as many as possible. My friend Nataalka, with whom I worked for a few years, now lives in Western Ukraine, and she is opening her home to a refugee family. She asks for prayer that she will be wise in choosing a good family to invite into her home. Many others are doing the same. Poland is welcoming refugees, and citizens of Poland are standing near the border with signs saying they have a free room available to house a refugee family. Near Kyiv is a Christian orphanage that I was able to visit for a week with Shepherd’s Purse several years ago. They’ve had to take the children underground and can hear bombing nearby. A husband of one of my acquaintances was called in to fight for Ukraine, and now he is in Kyiv, defending his capital. A couple of days ago, one of my friend’s friends, who lives near Kyiv, said that they are going to bed with their clothes on, because they may need to run during the night.

There’s been hope in the darkness. You’ve seen the bravery of the Ukrainians on the news. They ... are so inspiring! Even among Russians, good things are happening. Some soldiers surrendered as POWs to Ukraine, because they said they didn’t know they were going to war. They were told they were just having training exercises. Several bombs did not detonate. Several Russian tanks ran out of gas and can’t go anywhere because Ukraine blew up the railroad tracks from Russia. Several Russians are lost, because Ukrainians took down the road signs. And many Russians are still gathering to protest this war in Russia.

Zane Reports From Cuba

We had a wonderful meeting with the preachers and discussed ways that we can better help them on the field. Many ideas were put out there for us to look and pray about and when we meet together on the next trip, we will do some planning for the next few years. We are all excited about what God has in store. We were able to bring money for the preachers and they were not even expecting it, now don’t get me wrong because they really appreciated it. They were just happy that someone was there to encourage them. And I know they could use the money as prices on everything in Cuba has skyrocketed. We are still translating the preachers reports that they gave us, so we will have a little more from them next month. I do know that at least 14 have been baptized into Christ this year.

We had 27 at Rolando and Isis Durante’s house church on Sunday morning. This is the most they have had since opening back up after the pandemic. We were surprised by the numbers considering the government had imposed a mask mandate right before we arrived. It was funny because they lifted it at midnight Sunday and you could hear people cheering on the streets. We had a beautiful service filled with praising our Lord. House churches are a lot of work for the people hosting the church, but there is something beautiful about the setting. There is more of a warm welcoming feeling when you are at someone’s home, than in a church building. You seem more invested with the church and it is so much more easy to build strong relationships with the people.

Cuba has always been one of my favorite places to visit. The people are so friendly and loving and willing to help in anyway they can. I always stay in an apartment in Old Havana, so I can walk to different places. But it is such a blessing to me, to have my neighbors invite me over for coffee to visit. This gives me the opportunity to share the gospel with them and get to know them better. I look forward to when I am in Cuba again.

4 Saints Gained Their Places in Heaven

The White Fields family lost 4 great men during the month of June.

1. Christopher Smith
Christopher was an evangelist in Monrovia, Liberia. His wife Helena has requested $1300 for burial.

As you know many evangelists have traveled with us for years. Three of these men passed away. We rejoice with them receiving their heavenly home.

2. Doug Willis

Reggie Thomas met Doug Willis on one of his first trips to Australia. Doug has traveled with Reggie since 1974 and served as a White Fields evangelist and a previous member of the board. Doug spent a lot of time in India and other countries in Asia.

3. Jim Boman

When Zane and I moved from Atlanta to Joplin, we visited Villa Heights Christian Church. The next day two men showed up at our door and wanted to "call" on us. I laughed because I knew my dad would be so pleased. One of those men was Jim Boman. A few month's later Jim showed up on Reggie Thomas' doorstep to call on him! Shortly after that Jim started traveling as a White Fields evangelist. I'm not sure I can count how many trips Jim made. Zane and I were partnered with Jim and his wife, Helen, in Russia in 1992. We had a lot of laughs. Jim traveled with White Fields right up until his health stopped him. One place Jim especially loved was St. Martin.

4. Jerry Bradford

We met Jerry Bradford through an old friend and fellow evangelist Carlos Fields. Jerry traveled several places with us, but spent most of his time in Haiti.

All these men will greatly be missed, but each one has touched so many lives for Christ. So.....

Well done, good and faithful servants
